Extremely good at

- Defamation – copy review, litigation
- Representing the interests of sexual violence survivors
- Human rights cases and causes
- Constitutional and public law issues
- Anything regulatory or litigious

Highlights

- Lachlan Murdoch v Crikey – the defamation case of the century
- Dyer v Chrysanthou & Porter – leading authority on conflicts of interest
- Yates v Frydenberg, Garbett v Liu – Court of Disputed Returns challenge to the election results in two Liberal seats in the 2019 federal election, established new law on the Electoral Act prohibition on misleading advertising during elections.
- Azimitabar v The Commonwealth – highlighting the travesty of onshore APOD immigration detention
- The “India Ban” case, challenging the government’s COVID law preventing Australian citizens from returning home
- A ton of advocacy for rape survivors, partnering with The Grace Tame Foundation and RASARA (I’m on both boards)

Claim to fame

Have had three books and hundreds of articles published; like to think of myself as a writer.
